I was enjoying my first visit to an Australian zoo with my family. There were some strange animals there. Because we arrived there around noon, we ate lunch first. My parents bought ice creams for me and my sister Miyuki after that. The ice cream tasted great! And then, we went to see our favorite animal – the koalas. One of them had a baby on her back. I was so excited to see them that my parents told me to be a zookeeper. It is a person who takes care of animals. To be a zookeeper, I need to go to college and to learn more about animals. But I want to become one in the future.
